Reemployment Assistance Process Guide

This project was funded under the provisions of the DLIS Florida CARES Act from the Institute of Museum and Library Services. Florida's DLIS Florida CARES Act program is administered by the Department of State's Division of Library and Information Services. The Panhandle Library Access Network created these videos to assist Floridians with the reemployment assistance application process.

Are You Unable to Apply Online?

Florida Administrative Code Chapter 73B-11 says that everyone applying for reemployment assistance benefits is required to apply online. However, DEO offers special assistance to people who do not speak English as their primary language and those who have a limited ability to read, speak, write, or understand English. They also provide special assistance to people who need help filing a claim online because of legal reasons, computer illiteracy, language barriers, or disabilities.

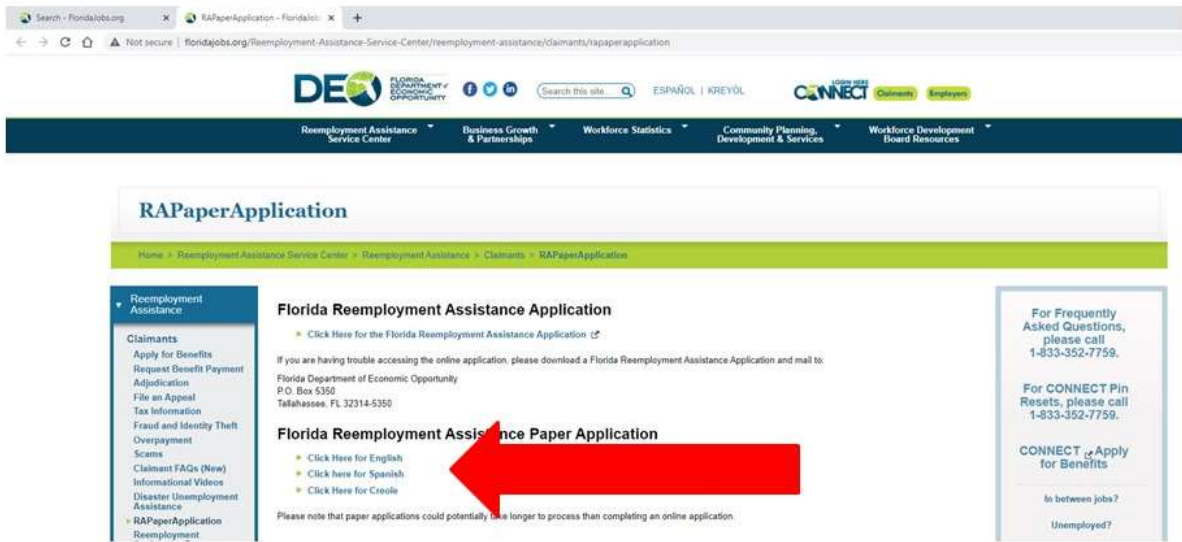

Due to the pandemic, DEO is also accepting paper applications. You can download the paper application from their website. Go to <https://www.floridajobs.org> and choose Reemployment Assistance Resources.

Then choose RAPaperApplication.

Under Florida Reemployment Assistance Paper Application, choose your language, and download the form. Please note that a paper application will probably take longer to process than an online application.

Need More Help?

Public Library: Libraries can help with many things, including letting you use a computer, printer, copier, scanner, or fax machine. Some libraries also have staff available who may be able to help guide you through the application process.

Find your local library at
