

Wages Not Covered by Reemployment Assistance

Reemployment Assistance Process Guide

This project was funded under the provisions of the DLIS Florida CARES Act from the Institute of Museum and Library Services. Florida's DLIS Florida CARES Act program is administered by the Department of State's Division of Library and Information Services. The Panhandle Library Access Network created these videos to assist Floridians with the reemployment assistance application process.

Wages Not Covered by Reemployment Assistance

Reemployment Assistance Process Guide

In some cases, wages paid by certain types of employers cannot be used to establish a reemployment assistance claim.

You may not be eligible for reemployment assistance if you were:

- Employed by a religious organization
- An elected official
- A sole proprietor or partner in a business
- A student nurse in a hospital or nurses' training school
- A medical school intern in a hospital
- A salesperson selling in homes (for instance, selling Pampered Chef or Scentsy)
- A temporary employee
- An inmate in a work release program
- Employed as a domestic (housecleaning, child care, or other personal service)
- An individual on a fishing vessel
- Employed by a foreign government
- A student working for class credit
